Recession: $131 billion worse than we thought

By Annalyn Censky @CNNMoney July 29, 2011: 2:50 PM ET

As portrayed by the red line, the U.S. economy plunged 5.1% during the recession. Originally, the government had estimated only a 4.1% drop.

NEW YORK (CNNMoney) -- The depths of the Great Recession were even greater than originally reported -- by $131 billion, to be exact.
Action Plan

1. First Conquer Your Own Demons
2. Control the Narrative
3. Get Invited In By Being Present
4. Never Neutral- Add Value
First Conquer Your Own Demons: Competition

• Not Competing with Google or Amazon or Apple
First Conquer Your Own Demons: Libraries

librarian | ˈlɪbriərɪən | noun
a person, typically with a degree in library science, who administers or assists in a library.

library | 'lɪˌbrɛrē, -brɛrē |
noun (pl. libraries)
a building or room containing collections of books, periodicals, and sometimes films and recorded music for people to read, borrow, or refer to: a school library | [as modifier]: a library book.
- a collection of books and periodicals held in a library: the Institute houses an outstanding library of 35,000 volumes on the fine arts.
- a collection of films, recorded music, genetic material, etc., organized systematically and kept for research or borrowing: a record library.
- a series of books, recordings, etc., issued by the same company and similar in appearance.
- a room in a private house where books are kept.
- (also software library) Computing a collection of programs and software packages made generally available, often loaded and stored on disk for immediate use.

ORIGIN late Middle English: via Old French from Latin libraria ‘bookshop,’ feminine (used as a noun) of librarius ‘relating to books,’ from liber, libr- ‘book.’

- Librarians Make Libraries
- The Mission of Librarians is to Improve Society through Facilitating Knowledge Creation in Our Communities
- A Mandated Mediated Space (Virtual And/Or Physical) Owned By The Community, Stewarded By Librarians, And Dedicated To Knowledge Creation
First Conquer Your Own Demons: Collections

• Recognize the Shift in Collections
• Recognize the Barriers in Service
  • “How can I help you?”
  • “What are you passionate about?”
First Conquer Your Own Demons: Books

- It’s About Knowledge
- Knowledge is NOT a thing
- Building Knowledge is Learning
- Not Learning with Books, or Scrolls, or Databases, or Microfiche - JUST LEARNING
- Librarians Are Educators

CITYFIXER

Getting African-American Boys to Read With 'Barbershop Books'

Many young black males don't see reading as part of their identity, one NYC educator believes. Haircut by haircut, he's trying to fix that.

Get Invited In By Being Present

- Get Out of the Building
  - Community Reference
  - Embedded Librarianship
- Every Hotspot a Library
Never Neutral- Add Value

- Professional Values
- Learning
- Openness
- Intellectual Freedom and Safety
- Intellectual Honesty (not Unbiased)
- Members NOT Customers NOT Users
The Results

• Look Like the Community Not Each Other
• Learning Based Institutions
  • Spaces:
    • Maker Spaces? Entrepreneurship?
  • Services:
    • True University Presses (Blogging, Video)
• Collections:
  • Fishing Poles? Lectures? Author Talks?
