Charter of Aurora Public Library

Whereas a petition for incorporation as an institution of the University has been duly received, and
Whereas official inspection shows that suitable provision has been made for buildings, furniture, equipment and for proper maintenance, and that all other prescribed requirements have been fully met.

Therefore, being satisfied that public interests will be promoted by such incorporation, the Regents by virtue of the authority conferred on them by law hereby incorporate with absolute charter the present trustees of the corporation created by the provisional charter granted by the Regents November 4, 1877.

Nicholas L. Zabriskie
Walter I. Lowe
Elizabeth F. Leffingwell
Edith P. Morgan
Jasper W. Freely

and their successors in office under the corporate name of Aurora Public Library with all powers, privileges and duties, and subject to all limitations and restrictions prescribed for such corporations by law or by the ordinances of the University of the State of New York. The first trustees of said corporation shall be the incorporators above named. The number of trustees shall be five and their successors shall be elected by the trustees of school districts number 6 of the town of Ledyard, Cayuga County, one each year to serve five years.

This corporation shall be located at Aurora, Cayuga County, New York, and this new charter shall take the place, in all respects, of the provisional charter under which the corporation has been operating.

In witness whereof the Regents sign this charter no. 1774 under the seal of the University at the capital in Albany, June 28, 1906.

St. Clair McFawne
Commissioner of Education

Recorded and took effect 4 p.m., June 28, 1906.
